SUBJECT: ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The Board of Education may appoint committees to serve as advisory bodies. These committees shall be temporary and shall be dissolved upon the accomplishment of the purpose for which they were established or if no longer needed as determined by the Board or District Superintendent. The charge to each advisory committee shall be specified at the time of its creation.

The Board delegates the appointment of committee members to the District Superintendent. The District Superintendent in turn annually provides the Board with a list of appointees.

Committees of the Board

The Board may establish joint committees with members of the administration, teaching staff or the public, subject to the following limitations:

- a) Any such committee shall have Board representation and the President shall serve as an ex-officio member unless otherwise ordered by the Board.
- b) The District Superintendent or his/her designee shall be an ex-officio member of any such committee.
- c) The function of such a joint committee shall be limited to making studies and recommendations to the Board. The function shall be specifically set forth by resolution of the Board or its designee.
- d) Reports to the Board from all such committees shall be submitted in writing in time to be circulated to the Board with the advance agenda.
- e) No such committee shall be appointed to serve for a term extending beyond the annual meeting next succeeding its appointment.
